

Genocide in Rwanda: Media, Memory and Denial

April 26-28, 2012

Sponsor

Afro-Romance Institute, Department of Romance Languages and Literatures

Co-Sponsors

Canadian Consulate in Chicago, IL

Embassy of Rwanda, Washington DC

Step UP! American Association for Rwandan Women

Office of the Vice-Provost of International Programs

Office of the Chancellor Diversity Initiatives

University Lectures Committee

Peace Studies Program

Departments of Black Studies, History, Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis (ELPA),

Sociology, Women and Gender Studies

Day I: Thursday, April 26, 2012

7:00 pm-9:30pm: Film Screening:

Title: Brussels-Kigali

Venue: Mumford Auditorium #133

Day II: Friday April 27, 2012

9:00am-12:00pm & 1:30pm-5:00pm: Symposium sessions

Venue: Student Center# 2206 ABC

7:00pm: Keynote Speech by Mr. Carl Wilkens

Title: Why I chose to Stay in Rwanda?

Venue: Ellis Auditorium (Library Building)

Day III: Saturday: April 28, 2012

10:00am-12:00 am: Symposium Session

Venue: Student Center# 2206 ABC

3:00pm: Keynote Speech by Senator Roméo Dallaire

Title: Are All Humans Human?

Venue: Bush Auditorium: Cornell Hall #201

6:00-10:00pm: Step Up Fundraiser Banquet

Banquet Speaker: Senator Roméo Dallaire

Title: The Causalities of Humanitarian Intervention

Venue: Hampton Inn & Suites, Banquet Hall on College & Stadium

Please visit the following sites for more details

<http://romancelanguages.missouri.edu/news.shtml>

www.stepuprwandawomen.org