

THE AFRO-ROMANCE INSTITUTE, THE DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE
LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES, AND THE CHANCELLOR'S
DISTINGUISHED VISITORS PROGRAM PRESENT:

Aline Helg

- ▶ Professor of Latin American History at the University of Geneva, Switzerland
 - ▶ Author of Our Rightful Share: The Afro-Cuban Struggle for Equality, 1886-1912. Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 1995
- Winner of:
- ★ 1995 Wesley-Logan Prize from the American Historical Association
 - ★ 1997 Elsa Goveia Book Prize from the Association of Caribbean Historians
 - ★ 1998 G.K. Lewis Memorial Award from the Caribbean Studies Association

Professor Helg will speak about:

"The Struggle of Afro-Cubans for Equality, 19th-20th Centuries"

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2015
3:30 - 5:30 PM
LEADERSHIP AUDITORIUM
Room 2501, STUDENT CENTER

There will be a reception immediately following the event, open to the public.

Sponsored by: the Chancellor's Distinguished Visitors Program; the Afro-Romance Institute; and the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures.