REGULATIONS:

To receive Advanced Standing, this must be your first time taking the higher level course, and you cannot have received previous credit for the level from any other University or College. You must have received a C-range grade or better to qualify.

The Department of Romance Languages and Literatures does not award Advanced Standing. We only certify that you have passed a qualifying course in the designated language with the required grade. This form will be forwarded to the academic unit you have listed above. Your academic unit is responsible for awarding advanced standing and requesting your transcript be updated. Please contact your academic unit's advising office if you have any questions concerning this procedure.

By signing, I signify that I have read the above, and understand.

Please place this completed form in the mailbox marked "COMPLETED ADVANCED STANDING FORMS" in A&S 143.
