

THE AFRO-ROMANCE INSTITUTE AND THE DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE
LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES PRESENT:

Graziella Parati

Dartmouth College

*Professor of Italian; Professor of Comparative Literature;
Professor of Women's and Gender Studies;*

Paul D. Pagnucci Professor of Italian Language and Literature.

Cities, Affect, and Citizenship: The Case of Igiaba Scego

Wednesday, April 22, 2015

4:00 – 5:00 pm

Mark Twain Room, N206 Memorial Union

Reception following.

Igiaba Scego is an Italian writer of Somali origin.

Her works include:

- Pecore nere: Black Sheep
- Quando nasci e una roulette. Giovani figli di migranti si raccontano.
When You are Born, It is a Crapshoot: Children of Migrants tell their Stories
- La mia casa è dove sono: My Home is Where I am

Sponsored by: The Afro-Romance Institute; the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures; the University Lectures Committee, the Department of Women's and Gender Studies; and the Department of History.