

French Film Series (WS2014)

Come enjoy a FREE French language film
the second Wednesday of every month, at 6pm

February 12 (A&S 113) – Banlieue 13: Ultimatum (2009). “Set two years after the action in Banlieue 13, this sequel follows Tomaso and Leito on a quest to clean up the city. With the territory divided into five neighborhoods created along ethnic lines, they have their work cut out for them.” (Netflix.com) This film is fun to watch on its own for any fan of action flicks!

March 12 (Middlebush 12) -- Les Ordres (1974). A historical drama from Quebec relating the incarceration of innocent civilians during the 1970 October Crisis following the murder of the Quebec cabinet minister. The film follows five of those incarcerated civilians

April 9 (A&S 113) – Faubourg 36 (2008). “In the 1930s Paris, when a neighborhood music hall closes down, a trio of unemployed friends vow to bring the business back from the dead by staging a musical they hope will be a hit. If their gamble pays off, they'll have the money to buy the theater for themselves -- and the power to control their own destinies.” (Netflix.com)